

...and Kyroot said:

There's a lot TO "being famous",
and somewhat less.

...and Kyroot said:

Only the rich don't die destitute; the rest get promptly shipped right to the Pauper's Polo Grounds.

...and Kyroot said:

You not only CAN, you WILL "take it with you."

...and Kyroot said:

Oh, I finally got back by that City book store that puts the new, promising titles out in their window. The predominate three I noticed this time by were, "The Duty Of Being Alive.", "The Art Of Preserving Heads.", and "Naked Shingles In The Wind."

...and Kyroot said:

Be on the look-out.

...and Kyroot said:

A change-of-power does not tarry; conversions never stand still;

just look at it this way - nothing lingers.

...and Kyroot said:

To be a critic, you run the risk of eventually choking on something you
DO like.

...and Kyroot said:

There was this hefty in-town organization that had as its slogan, "We will take no umbrage before its time."

...and Kyroot said:

I am disturbed by the similarity of the words, "luck", and "schmuck."

...and Kyroot said:

There's a lot to be said for saying a lot less.

...and Kyroot said:

Any problem can be solved if you don't ask for a solution.

...and Kyroot said:

A Real Revolutionist seldom re-writes.

...and Kyroot said:

No matter what else you may have heard, or read on the subject, the only REAL freedom is in telling the king to "stuff it", and benefitting therefrom

...and Kyroot said:

If you, your government, or anybody else has some particular claim about itself which includes the invitation to "come see for yourself.', don't bother, it ain't worth it.

...and Kyroot said:

Don't be humming, "Twist And Shout" at a hangman's convention.

...and Kyroot said:

Let me clue you in again: Whenever you hear of someone being "arrested without any resistance", no one was actually arrested.

...and Kyroot said:

The Revolutionist knows that all behavior's simply an act.

...and Kyroot said:

In the City ALL so-called proof is anecdotal. (In trying to reveal 4-D stuff in 3-D circumstances how could it be otherwise, eh Sherlock.)

...and Kyroot said:

Although there is no benefit in a Revolutionist being uncouth, in His spare time He might secretly be ANTI-couth.

...and Kyroot said;

At times in the City when you gotta park it for a bit, whenever possible, back in.

...and Kyroot said:

Remember, our motto is, "We Ain't GOT No Motto."