

...and Kyroot said:

In City affairs a Man's best friend is His habits.

...and Kyroot said:

One of the several suave talents of the City is that it can hold you captive and make you live like you like it.

...and Kyroot said:

Regarding Mans' position in the Life-Of-Life, think of it thusly: We're in the very midst of
the midst.

...and Kyroot said:

Don't try to be spiritual unless you know what you're doing, or else know full well that you do not know,
and would like to.

...and Kyroot said:

Any time its for "your own good" its also for someone else's.

...and Kyroot said:

Only the weak say good bye.

...and Kyroot said:

Why be Sam if you can be Sam AND Dave.

...and Kyroot said:

One ole City dude sez, "Watching TV won't hurt you if you don't take it seriously.", but Jeeze, ole timer, that's true about EVERY thing.

...and Kyroot said:

Farm Update Number Seven: If you REALLY have your chickens you have no need to count them. (Only those fearful of losing same must log the fowls...FAIR balls don't even come into play here.)

...and Kyroot said:

Another reason the City, by and large, seems oblivious to the Revolution is that they do not ever expect to find intelligence without guile.

(That which is TOO
surprising makes itself
invisible.

...and Kyroot said:

There's a short Man in Mongolia who sez He doesn't belong there.

...and Kyroot said:

Even though I've seen it all before I still shiver in awe and disbelief
when, from the City I hear the roll of the drums, the blare of the bugles,
and the mighty rise of their battle cry, "Hey, we ain't responsible."

...and Kyroot said:

If you're captive. you're ugly.

...and Kyroot said:

The City gradually tries to put everyone into junk bonds.

...and Kyroot said:

One little boy said, "Big people who talk seriously scare me."

...and Kyroot said:

Remember, its ALL a package deal, every fuckin' bit of it.

...and Kyroot said:

Don't take no medals.

...and Kyroot said:

If they offer you a share insist on a partnership; if they'll give you a sergeant's stripes demand a general's starts; if they'll make you a priest tell 'em that being god is your minimum requirement.

(Then if you're still feeling frisky you could tell 'em you know who they really are.)

...and Kyroot said:

Last month I heard this one Bush-oriented guy exclaim, "At least one good thing, no one can make me as mad as I can."

...and Kyroot said:

A Real Revolutionist can think of stuff ALL THE TIME. *