If you think you're doing more than measuring then you will think that you are what you're surveying... such as grief, fear, or any other earth emotion.

There's this other planet also, where there's a rigid law against doing anything you don't wanna do...

(They're debating another law to forbid wanting to do anything you don't wanna do.)

In a highly competitive environment it's always the survival of the environment.

(The fittest come and go,
but the constant must stay constant.)

On this other planet, a plot-to-kill is surprisingly close to the deed-be-done...

(but don't worry,
you're not there yet,
and even if you were
you wouldn't know it.)
