

...and Kyroot said:

One three dimensionally based father advised his equally captive kid thusly,
"Whilst abiding in space,
don't try to spit on a tall person."

10/29/90-(1.5)

...and Kyroot said:

When times required - one king would banish contentment.

...and Kyroot said:

There was this one fellow over in the City who has visions.....(he says that in an earlier version of his life he had corns and blisters, and sees his present state as a definite - however small - improvement.)

...and Kyroot said:

A cat that fights and plays with its own tail has the right makings to be a human in another life.

...and Kyroot said:

Once you know the real name of something you can move on to something else.

...(Okay, okay,
all right already - I'll tell you,
the real name of most stuff is,
"Connected To" - now, satisfied?)

...and Kyroot said:

Those who argue and debate don't KNOW what to do - that's why they argue and debate...
...(simple enough.)

...and Kyroot said:

This page was originally blank,
and I see no present need to change its status.

...and Kyroot said:

A helpful viewer writes in with this suggestion:

He says why don't I announce on the program that any of the Kyroots read that you don't like - I just made up!

...and Kyroot said:

Then there was this one king who'd never finish his sentences....he was king...he didn't HAVE to.

...and Kyroot said:

At night,
one guy'd try to do bed-check with his brain.

...and Kyroot said:

There is an unrecognized, sole source of stress in your City,
but even were it identified,
little would be the benefit.

...and Kyroot said:

For his birthday

this one god received a bull horn, and a pocketbook of inspirational verse;

he gazed upon these gifts with the sarcasm only a deity can muster.

...and Kyroot said:

One guy says,

"Why bother to talk to yourself unless you're smarter than you already are?,

and if you were that sharp

why would you even bother in the first place?"

.....(He's jolly well jammed-up the exit doors for some.)

...and Kyroot said:

In the ever-shifting world of the revolutionist some old familiar facilities can suddenly become over-used simply by being used again.

...and Kyroot said:

Men slay the maniacal in the hope they will rise again.

...and Kyroot said:

Earlier last year,
the Royal Chemist damn near got the king to announce the following:
"That those who drink,
then do not THINK, or either fight, should not be allowed to drink."

...and Kyroot said:

In the competitions between light waves and sound waves,
each team has its supporters here and there.

...and Kyroot said:

"Obvious facts" have two distinct features, (called in some quarters, "dangers", "
[but two-bits lacks its former importance]),
the first is that they can be too obvious,
the second is that they can be too factual, and lastly: Once the substitute quarterback's (there's that word again) number becomes familiar it's easier to just leave him in the game.
...(Thus, concludes this treatise on,"Obvious facts".)

, 10/29/90-(10)

... and Kyroot said:

Track tip to keep one ON track: No matter how the odds look at post time put all your money on Irony.

.....(Insider's Additional Advice: This does assume the track in question is in some circular configuration.)

...and Kyroot said:

One king said, "I am my own ruler.",
and the people replied, "We are our own people.", then they both held up mirrors and said, "All is well."

THE SPEAKER SAID TO THE GROUP:

"THE MIND IS A FINELY TUNED AND ENGINEERED MACHINE THAT CAN RUN WITH ALMOST NO ATTENTION OR UPKEEP.",

HE BRUSHED SOME LIFE FROM HIS EYE, LOOKED OFF INTO THE DISTANCE AND ADDED,
"I TRUST THAT A FEW OF YOU DO NOT HEAR THIS AS A COMPLIMENTARY OBSERVATION."

THE WAY CITY JUSTICE WORKS

A BAG PIPPER GIVES THANKS WHEN SEEING AN ACCORDIANIST TRIP, WHO HIMSELF STUMBLED WHILE LAUGHING AT THE DEATH OF A BANKER, WHO DIED TRYING TO COLLECT A LOAN FROM AN INSURANCE SALESMAN
WHO HAD BORROWED THE MONEY TO BUY BAG PIPES.

AND A VIEWER RESPONDS: "YOU CALL THAT, 'JUSTICE'!?"

---

ONE MAN WHO WAS INTERESTED IN EXPLORING THE TRANSCENDENTAL OPPORTUNITIES OF LIFE SAID THAT HIS ATTITUDE TOWARD THE SYSTEMATIZED EFFORTS IN THIS AREA WAS THAT IF YOU'RE SAILING OFF INTO UNKNOWN OCEANS WITH LITTLE POSSIBILITY OF EVER RETURNING -- WHY NOT, "RENT YOUR BOAT"!?

AND THAT SPEAKER FLICKED AWAY A BIT OF EXISTANCE FROM THE OTHER EYE, AND ADDED: "I TRUST THAT A FEW OF YOU HEARD THIS WITH THE PROPER REALIZATION THAT STARBOARD IS STILL ON THE RIGHT, AND PORT, OTHERWISE".

---

...and Kyroot said:

This one people decided they wouldn't have a king;
they made an immediate discovery - Decidin's one thing, doin', another.

...and Kyroot said:

One City's operational motto was: "A man who's not sarcastic is not alive"

...and Kyroot said:

On some drier worlds
the seas roll and flow within the creatures.

...and Kyroot said:

Additional example of "Justice Never Seen": To the deaf, all paintings look better
in the dark.

...and Kyroot said:

The leader of one family declared to the brood, "The dumber you are the better you better look."

...and Kyroot said:

The brief, but pointed letter from one concerned citizen to the City paper's Editors read,
in its entirety as follows,

"Dear Sirs: The Huns are at EVERYONE'S door."

...and Kyroot said:

As he took his final breath

the Minister Of City Feelings And Stability whispered to his gathered friends,

"Glue and cement are lonely states of affair - necessary, but lonely."

...and Kyroot said:

Some - "Oh no, not that!" - practical advice: If you're going to try to rip out your brain start at one of the edges

...and Kyroot said:

Standing tall amidst the collection of vino scraps,
and late night musings, he clearly called,
"I am a great city,
I cannot be destroyed, and none can breach my boundaries
but I am strangling in my own pollution."

.....(Some present trusted this to be said metaphorically,
some had their doubts,
and others thought they were in the wrong bar.)

...and Kyroot said:

One guy who hands out pamphlets in the park professes to "Actually know"
why dogs pretend to like humans.

...and Kyroot said:

A viewer writes to say that although he's never been part of the culture crowd, after watching these shows he's taken a new look in that direction, and has decided that,"The arts are Life's way of 'smiling through man', (or else Its personal form of ridicule)."

...and Kyroot said:

"Of course," said the man behind the counter,
"The main thing always remains the same."

.....(Of course HE'D say that that's why he's behind the counter.)

...and Kyroot said:

Near the university's east gate,
a chap with a snack in his hand confidentially noted that once he'd "learned how to think"
he'd given up reading books, (except for an occasional girlie magazine).

...and Kyroot said:

And in response
one man said,
"I am absolutely appalled."

...and Kyroot said:

After several decades of a reign that included many triumphs, some set backs, great progress and public joy mixed with personal sadness and uncertainty,
the beloved monarch was sitting by an open window, gazing across the warm spring lawn toward the near by forest, and noted to his scribe, "The squirrels know more than they're telling."

ONE MAN BEGAN TO HAVE SO MUCH FUN, LOOKING OUT THE WINDOW, ON THE TRIP, THAT HE THOUGHT: "I BELIEVE I'LL JUST GET OFF
THE NEXT TIME THE BUS STOPS.", AND THE BUS IMMEDIATELY DECIDED I'D QUIT STOPPING.

MORAL: HEY, BUSES MAY NOT BE YOUR FRIEND -- BUT AT LEAST THEY'RE THEIRS. HEY.

* * *

...and Kyroot said:

This one ole guy would cheer-lead, and encourage himself with the exhortation, "Go figure!",.....(He continued to do this long after he could no longer figure out what it meant.)

FROM AN UNCOPYRIGHTED, ORIGINS-UNKNOWN, SPORTS DICTIONARY
FOUND BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD

COME THIS ENTRY:

MYSTIC: A GUY WHO WON'T "PLAY RIGHT".

---

...and Kyroot said:

The grimmer the prize
the glitzier the contest.

...and Kyroot said:

Title of yet another yet-to-be-never-written book: "Thoughts On Everything
Are Thoughts On Anything."

...and Kyroot said:

While a few 'of 'em were just sittin' around gabbin' and goofin' one god said that the best thing about being in their position was that you didn't have to "call your mama", but then another one chimed in to say that he thought that was the WORST part.

...and Kyroot said:

Query : What kind of revolutionist might seem hard and heartless toward secondary affairs?

Answer: A revolutionist.

...and Kyroot said:

The ruler of one kingdom announced his decision that the people not be allowed to be sad;
in return they decided he not be allowed to be king.

...and Kyroot said:

People will pay to be entertained, but not informed - wonder why?, well,
I'll tell you why: Only one of the two is actually possible.

...and Kyroot said:

In our continuing attempt to bring you nothing but the best in high class entertain - I mean, information, we should be made privy to an extant variation of the previous Kyrootal Theorem, to witty:
People will pay to be entertained, but not informed - UNLESS you can trick 'em!